

Acknowledgments

Rex and I would like to thank the explorers of Ararat for taking the time to be a part of this project. Also, thanks to each explorer and their families for their courage, contribution and sacrifice in the search for Noah's Ark.

I would especially like to thank my wife, Jennifer; my son, Daniel; my parents and my family for their support and encouragement (especially my mom) for purchasing my first book about Noah's Ark.

I would like to thank Dr. Paul Meier for the Foreword, as well as for the musical opportunity he allowed my wife and me. Thanks to Charles Willis, Chuck Aaron, Bob Garbe, Don Shockey, Robert Michelson, and Jim Hall for allowing me to be a part of four historic expeditions to Mount Ararat.

I would like to thank the faculty and administration of Atatürk University, Erzurum, Turkey; the Ministry of Culture & Tourism, the governor of Agri, mayor of Doğubeyazit, and to all other Turkish government and military officials, and friends that have helped us with our research efforts.

A special thanks goes to editors Judy Walker, Tad Wakefield, Gerrit Aalten, Rick Lanser, John Comber and Gary & Robbie Walker at Atlantic Printing in Tabor City, North Carolina.

Rex would also like to specially thank Phyllis Cummings Watson who graciously donated Eryl & Violet Cummings' "arkives" that have added tremendously to the reference materials for the 3rd Edition of The Explorers Of Ararat. Rex also wants to thank Alva Appel, Bill Dougall, Dr. Pieter Vandenhoven, Elfred Lee, Pat Frost, Bobby Jones, Charles Willis, Bill Crouse, John McIntosh, Dick Bright, Dave Larsen, Tom Pickett, Jim Hays, John Comber, Matthew Kneisler, Carl Nestor, David O'Neil, Robin Simmons, Michael Castellano, and Steve Emse for adding valuable information to the reference section of the book and web site.

To Rex's and my other "virtual" Internet researchers, contributors, and past team members, all too numerous to mention. You know who you are! Thanks!
